Mary Ostermann is the co-founder of Beaver Dam Women’s Health and was instrumental in conceptualizing and founding the Dodge County Women’s Club. She explains, “All of us at Beaver Dam Women’s Health are passionate about women’s health, and we wanted to offer the opportunity for area women to connect and have fun together – that is how the idea for Dodge County Women’s Club was born. And a special thank you goes to co-sponsor American National Bank and the Bank’s Donna Oathout, who helps develop the programs.”

“The Club allows women to socialize, network, and discuss a wide variety of interesting topics,” Ostermann continued. “We like to plan fun, special, and unique activities each month during our programming season and encourage all women in the greater Beaver Dam area to come check us out – our doors are open!”

All Dodge County Women’s Club events are open to all area women. Additional information on the events as well as pre-registration is available online; attendees are encouraged to visit the Dodge County Women’s Club website or call (920) 885-6090.
